Why your magic spells and rituals don't work!

To begin with, everything begins and ends in the mind. This is how magic works. Reality as we know it

To begin with, everything begins and ends in the mind. This is how magic works. Really as we know it is a collectively induced and agreed upon hallucination. What you see, feel, hear, think, smell, touch, and taste is a hallucination. Without these senses available to you the world would simply be atoms. Everything vibrates in this universe and is created from energy. You are energy. Nothing is separate in this Universe. Everything is connected. You are not separate from others or the external environment. Your internal thoughts your sense of Self is false. The truth is, is that we are all One Consciousness experiencing itself subjectively, life is but a dream and you are the imagination of your Self. Everything is Mind.

If you ever wish to achieve magical or psychic power you will have to understand the above paragraph. Read it again if you need too. Read it a third time as well. I just exposed the most fundamental truths known to the reality that is experienced by mystics and held as a secret by powerful secret societies. When a person can achieve the state of not intellectually understanding this great truth but experiences it, then he or she will completely understand the fundamental plasticity of the Universe and the unlimited power of the mind. Your mind is not separate.

Your mind is a piece and part but not removed from the total mind. The All that is. What this means to you as a person trying to gain magical and psychic power is that your mind is the same mind that this Universe consists of. When you discover how to empower your thoughts, strengthen your willpower and utilize your imagination in a constructive way, you can create concrete results in physical reality with your desired intentions. Many magical websites will feed you a bunch of magic spells and rituals or talk about angels or demons for power. That is what fools do.

If you want very real magical skill and mystical wisdom you will first have to purge restricting beliefs, thoughts, habits and patterns that cause mental weakness. What I mean by that is to remove everything that holds you back mentally. After you do that you can begin with a cleaner slate which will really put you into contact if wished with the power of your subconscious mind which is not separate from the collective mind or as we know it, the Universe.

When you learn to actively control your thinking, create a positive mental environment for you to consciously live in, remove all negative thoughts and limiting beliefs and patterns that are destructive, you can tap into an outlet of unlimited power.

The greatest method for doing this is meditation. The purpose of this first essay to alert you to the powers of meditation. It will clean your conscious mind and cleanse your subconscious. I suggest you begin meditating twenty minutes a day. Twice a day. If you don't meditate or have any mental control over yourself it will not matter how many magic spells you try. They won't work. People complain all over the internet how spells don't work, their magical attempts never work, because they have no idea on how to harness a magical atmosphere within their minds that is like fertile soil for planting the seeds of magical intent.

If you desire to become a wizard or witch my first lesson to you is to meditate for twenty minutes immediately after you wake up in the morning. Lay there, focus on your breathing and clear your mind of thoughts. The easiest way to do this is to focus on the inhale and exhale of every breath you take. Become conscious only of the rhythm of your breathing. Before you go to bed at night, do this as well. Meditate for twenty minutes before you go to sleep. Clear your mind and focus on your breathing only. This daily exercises will begin to dramatically impact your inner conscious mental atmosphere typically within one or two weeks.

After a few months, you will have a much clearer mind and much greater control over your thinking and how you experience your reality. After a year of this, you will really understand the power of your mind and will be the calm silent center in the chaos of daily reality. If you wish to get anywhere with magic or psychic powers you will have to do this. If you don't, then don't complain about your spells and rituals not working.

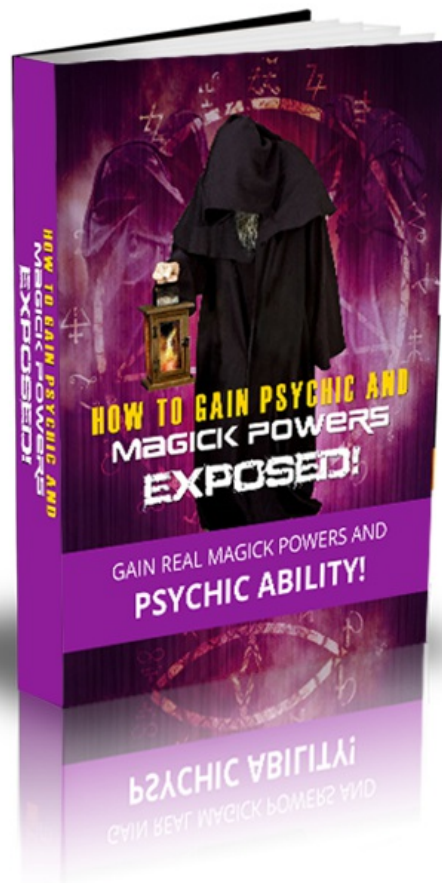

Creating an atmosphere for magical results begins and ends in your mind. It won't matter what kind of ritual or spell you put together. If you don't have a mind that is fertile for magical effect nothing will work no matter what you do. Understand this. This is a powerful message that barely any magical sites online will tell you.

Many magical websites will give you hundreds of spells and different methods of magic but they don't teach you the very first and most important part of magick. Having a strong and powerful mind. When your mind is powerful you really can do anything. Personally, I have seen my magical acts transmute into my reality thousands of times. It puts a smile on my face when I see something I magically created happen in my life or when I know things ahead of time that I use to my advantage.

If you do not have a strong or disciplined mental atmosphere you will get nowhere with magic. Understand this. Start meditating two times a day for the rest of your life.
